Effective January 1, 2024, Brisa del Mar Board meetings are being held entirely via Zoom teleconference without a physical location pursuant to Civil Code section 4926. To access the General Session through your desktop, please go to www.zoom.com/join. If you have previously used the program, you can then input the meeting ID and the password. If this is your first time, please follow the prompt to install the zoom program and then enter the meeting ID and password on the Join Meeting tab. To access through your phone or tablet please add the Zoom app from your app store. In the app, navigate to the Join Meeting tab. The location of this tab varies based on your device platform so please allocate time to explore your specific layout. Once you have located the Join Meeting tab, proceed to enter the meeting ID and password. For more detailed information, including using Zoom on a mobile device, go to support.zoom.us and click on Joining a Zoom Meeting under Featured Articles. Should you have questions regarding the teleconference process before or during the meeting, please contact Pam Bell at 949-248-4300 or pbell@danapacificms.com. Pursuant to Civil Code section 4045(b), homeowners may request to receive general notices by individual delivery. Such requests shall be made in writing and directed to the management company.
